It has been 8 months since the last issue and what have we gained??.....Not too fucking much to brag about. Sad isn't it? We've seen shows come and go at the BEACH THEATER. No great loss because of it being too big, poor P.A., always sounded muddy. Also, the FANTASY LOUNGE was a short lived experience for those who chose pacifist activity over dancing. No dancing, no atmosphere, no fun. To cite either of these 2 excuses for hot spots as a center of alternative activities would be comparable to selling a placebo to a junkie. Wise up, you fucking losers! It's a poor substitute. Presently filling this void in our ailing social structure is DOMINICS. We've seen a lot of new bands debut there and many other good bands play there too, but still it's climate is too controlled. No need to tear the place up, we just wanna have fun. Is all this the best we can do? This is a great city but the people who have the means to change it have really fucked things up. Example: Neighboring Richmond has a decent radio station and Channel 36/Color Radio and they broadcast the Maximum Rock & Roll Radio Show. Plus they have several good rock stations, not just one. Richmond has several well stocked music shops, not just one or two. There are a lot of bands, with a lot of support and a lot of places to play and you can dance. OK OK OK. Everybody sit back down. No reason to start packing to move. We've just got to straighten this fucking place out. Don't let this summer go by without change. Voice your opinion every chance you get. To whom? To the radio stations, the record stores, the bars and other hang-outs. If every one of you who reads this would write to FM-99/K-94/WIRO once every week and tell them what you really want to hear it would have a tremendous impact. If you took 5 minutes to call these stations everyday just to tell them off for the ignorant shit they play it would eventually arouse their minds in one fucked up way or another. Think about it. Shocking huh? I see disgusted and disgusting people everyday. If they would just direct their criticism to the proper source and apply pressure constructively things could change. How's that for turning the tables? Well, that's too bad because judging from the written response to ARSE #2 there aren't too many people out there about to do jack shit. Support and journalistic contributions were practically zilch. Does that make you feel uneasy? It should. Oh sure, there are some people who really do give a damn and must have change, but as for the rest of you, I call them as I see them. Bunch of lazy fuckers.

Isn't there somebody out there with the means to change things, that can see that it could be an operable venture to have a warehouse rented on a monthly basis and subletted to bands for a practice studio and hold shows several nights a week for all ages with cheap legal security to ensure any unwanted problems like fights or raids.

Isn't there somebody out there who has the means to change, that can see there is a need to have alternative radio programming. It is discriminating that not all forms of music are catered to on Tidewater radio. This has to change.

Well, I've said my piece and I plan to keep doing so. I hope more than a few of you have the guts to say what you feel, too! I also hope you do it in a way that counts. I hope we all understand what's happening to us and Thanks for reading this. Please speak out.

HI KIDS!

It's Mr. Greg's first hospital review. Many of us in the Tidewater Scene need to know where to go to get help, and how to pay for it. Then again some of us just need a little vacation (insurance paid of course) from the hassels of life, and what better place to spend this time than in the local mental health facility (A.K.A. "Nut house").

There's nothing like the pleasures of the seclusion room, a reasonable dose of tranquilizer, and a bit of 'ole time Freudian therapy to make the heart light. Or if you're like me and love to dabble in recreational drugs, you just might check out one of the fine alcohol and drug treatment centers. Since I've been in both, I have the distinct pleasure to review both.

TPI- Always a favorite of the scene, TPI has had many of the young ladies as alumni. The word on this center is "Flush but Fucked". The staff here is condescending, rude and over all unpleasant. The beds rate an "8", while the food is less than average. I rate it a 4½. The salad is crisp and unoxidized. This I found to be the foods greatest asset. Remember: TPI has no respect for your dollar, so how could it be any fun.

RATED 3½

COMMUNITY MENTAL HEALTH- CMH is only to be considered in the case of DIRE EMERGENCY! The staff has no sense of humor what so ever, the food stinks and most of all they believe in treating the clientel with the worst varied assortment of drugs available. The food only rated a 3, very bad for the delicate pallete. The beds are reasonably new and I give them an 8 also. I would avoid this place.

RATED 2

EASTERN STATE-NOW ALL YOU FANS OF "HARDCORE TREATMENT", LISTEN! This is the place! The food is terrible, the staff unbearable, the beds are lumpy, and the staff is grumpy. But what a mental health experience! E.S. has all the wards. Alcohol, criminally insane (always a favorite), depression, and chronics. This may sound bad, but think of the fun you can have. The staff plays the "Give the psyco 1000mg. of Thorazine" game, and then they bet on how long it will take for the guy to fall. Now these guys KNOW how to have fun! The state pays the way, so we can all go.

BEDS: 1½ FOOD: ½ (gruel really)

Rated 10

Riverside- Riverside has the best in staff for the alcohol and drug abuser, this is why I would not recomend it for the recreational hospital goer. They're too serious. The beds are passable, about a 6, the food is reasonable, a 7, the staff is unrelenting and down to business. The lock up wards are too squeaky clean to be any fun, so stay away from this place.

RATED 4

All of these treatment centers want no money up front, just - desire! The business offices can be bullshitted and often are. So come on and take the tour, you won't know what you're missing until you try!

A Chinese army patrol on the Nepal border has reported encountering a band of hairy, man-like monsters scampering on a rocky ledge above a mountain stream, according to a Peking radio broadcast.

C.C.: Whats this Nazi shit on your flyers?

P.W.: Well I think everybody needs something to hate, and since I don't like myself very much anyway, it might as well be us.

C.C.: What does the name Schnyzer mean?

P.W.: Well, it means alot of things to alot of different people but it basically means slimey, disgusting putrid, slug.

C.C.: How many songs do you have?

P.W.: 10

C.C.: Can I see the song list?

P.W.: Sure, Bull + Toid, Lame Rank Cereal Mutha, Man of the Wheelbarrow, Tailor, Moronic Toast, Face Yo Enema, Lie to Us and Lucy, Stab Your Garage, Funny Lesion, Now Really?

C.C.: Thats a pretty impressive song list.

P.W.: Yeah too bad I can't play any of them yet.

C.C.: Don't you guys ever practice?

P.W.: Yeah [redacted] a mowhawk is letting us use his garage, [redacted] when we play they never show up!

C.C.: What do you think of [redacted] other bands?

P.W.: Slimey turds!

C.C.: What bands do you like?

P.W.: 38 Special, Motley Crue, Kim Carnes, and Legion of Doom.

C.C.: Whats the band lineup?

P.W.: I play slug guitar and Jon plays bass, but he's so good I don't know why he'd want to play with a dipshit like me, and some guy named Don or Tim something like that plays drums.

C.C.: How long have you guys been together?

P.W.: About 18 months.

C.C.: How come you guys havent played any gigs?

P.W.: Because my job takes up too much time.

C.C.: Oh, where do you work?

P.W.: The Virginia Itty Bitty Schnyzer Committe.

C.C.: Whats that?

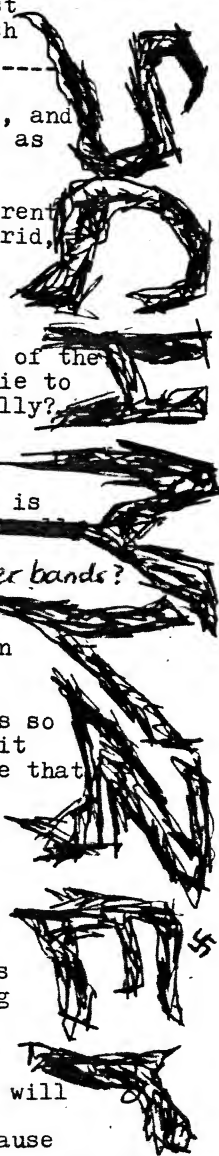

P.W.: We're a Facist funded organization that teaches uneducated, worthless scum to go door to door and beg money.

C.C.: Can't you do that on your own?

P.W.: Wow! I never thought of that.

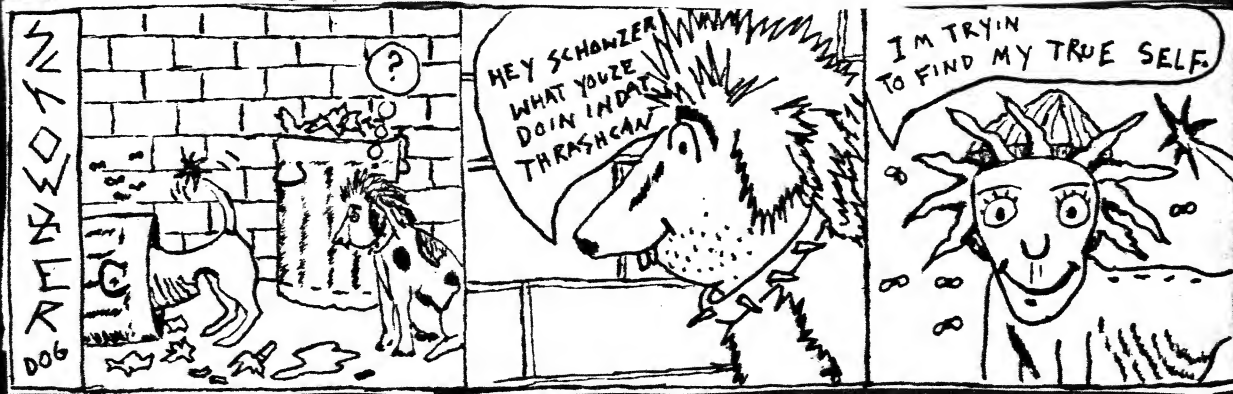

C.C.: I guess this will be the end of the interview, will we be hearing anything from you guys soon?

P.W.: No I don't think so, I gotta be leaving town cause I owe alot of people money and I can't pay them back.

ELECTION 84-

Well folks, it's that time again. Just like every other leap year, it's election time in the U.S.A. In keeping with the ARSE's commitment to keep the public informed, here is an analysis of what's going on and why.

Four years ago, the U.S. had developed a strong commitment for the enforcement of human rights in the world. Dictators such as Somoza in Nicaragua and the shah in Iran had fallen due to withdrawn American support. The junta in Guatemala and Marcos government in the Phillipines had been forced to adopt a more tolerant attitude towards dissent.

In the Middle East, the treaty between Israel and Egypt, and covert contact with the P.L.O. had isolated the repressive governments of Libya and Syria as marginal influences with little credibility.

Carter had three big problems, though. The first was that interest rates were high, which is something the president has no control over. The second problem was the hostage crisis in Iran. The third problem was the press. When it became obvious that Sen. Kennedy was going to run, the press did everything it could to make Carter look bad and make it easier for Kennedy (a darling of the press) to win.

Because of this, Reagan ended up getting elected. He followed up by bungling everything he possibly could. In Central America, the U.S. is backing what anyone can see is the losing side. In the Middle East, Syria (which had to blow away 20,000 of it's own people to keep the government in power, last year according to Amnesty International) is now a power broker in the region.

The failure of Reagan in Lebanon is obvious.

Reagan talks about "re-arming" America, but all that's being done is to add to our already formidable nuclear arsenal in Europe. The only part of military strength that the Soviets are superior in is ground troops, and our troop strength has actually been cut back since 1980.

The only success that Reagan has chalked up is the reduction in inflation. But that was accomplished on the backs of six million unemployed workers. "Ten percent tax cut"? Did you pay less taxes last year?

If Reagan gets re-elected, the first thing he's likely to do is figure out some way to send in the army in Nicaragua. It's a known fact that Reagan doesn't believe the War Powers Act, which limits his ability to send in the troops, is constitutional. He can send in the troops, and put the case in front of the courts, while putting on his used car salesman act and telling everyone it was in their interest to blow away Nicaragua. He won't be worrying about re-election again, so he can really go to town with government prying into peoples lives.

The thing to realize is that what he wants to do (cut services, institute the draft) can fuck YOU up, so it's in your interest to vote this year. Both of the major democratic candidates have acceptable positions on the major issues involved (Mondale was part of an administration that supported the Sandanistas rise to power, and Hart has said that he will immediately withdraw all U.S. troops from Central America). Both support the E.R.A. and the Voting Rights Act, and both support government intervention to enforce employment safety laws.

The most important thing to keep in mind is that it is in everyone's best interest to send Reagan and his bimbo wife riding off into the sunset for good. The guy has done everything negative he possibly could to flaunt the law and pervert what you have a right to expect from a government. Send him on a run for the hills in November, so we don't have to look at his embalmed hair and his stooped grin again.

OK! Here it is! Time for the Tidewater ARSE comprehensive band update. First, this is a local report, so a lot of great bands such as HONOR ROLE, GRAVEN IMAGE, WHITE CROSS, PREVARICATORS, DEATH PIGGY, WORSE THAN ELVIS, ABSENCE OF MALICE and MUTANT DRONE are not included because they are from Richmond. Sorry guys. Maybe next issue! Secondly - by drawing a line between new wave and punk firmly indicates that the areas underground and original music scene was prompted by the likes of the SPITTERZ, WITH INTENT, FRONT LINE, (from Norfolk), and RED CROSS (from Richmond). Practically everything in the area at the present time was initiated, encouraged, or provoked by these bands. Those who differ must still agree that some homage must be paid. Since this time, we have seen many bands come and go and change such as the BLANX/BONE SAW/ANSCHLUSS/SKATERS' FAITH/GOD'S WILL/the COOL JERKS/JERRY'S KIDS/URBAN DISCHORD/SCAT RITUAL/DEAD MEAT/LUDIVICO/AGGRESSIVE BEHAVIOR/SOCIETY OUTCASTS/DEAD SCOUTS/BAD ATTITUDES/RAT TAILS/the CRINGE/NO AGE LIMIT/the PITS and many, many more. Thus bringing us to the current array of alternative underground groups that this article is so proudly about. This is not meant to be a critique, but an informative, sometimes mildly biased, guide of who's who and how to get in touch with them. Enough idle chatter; Here's the facts:

HOIT

Det Novak - Vocals (bookings 481-4645)
Conrad Rhee - Guitar (bookings 486-6550)
Scott Bennett - Bass
Pat Smith - Drums

HOIT first formed in June of 1983. For a while they had a five-piece set up with Scott playing guitar and J.J. White playing bass. They started out weak but have refined their act to be one of the best, if not the best, thrash band in the area at present. They are tight and they are fast. They have enough material for a one hour set but their best performance is when they do a 30 minute set of their best stuff. They certainly are ambitious in support of this areas music scene and locating places to play. If you haven't seen them, you are a loser deluxe. I hope these guys get in the studio while they're hot.

LEGION OF DOOM

Dan Ryan - Vocals
Steve Athey - Guitar (bookings 480-1553)
Mike Jordana - Bass
Ted Brown - Drums

The LEGION OF DOOM formed in December 1983. I think these guys are a damned good band. You must either like them or hate them. Their audiences abound them with mixed reactions. At present, their set is about 45 minutes to an hour long. Dan Ryan (ex Dead Meat) seems to get better every performance and though Steve (ex Cool Jerk) Athey's stage stances border the pretentious, he is still a hot shot guitarist. Drummer Ted Brown (ex Skaters' Faith) is a firm commitment to the potential of the young. Mike (ex Dead Meat) Jordana plays a good bass if he only had one. That's right, throw away that toy, and get yourself a piece that grumbles, boy! Mike also wears a lot of cool clothes, too. Catch this band and decide for yourself. One thing is evident, they do have alot of fun.

12 STRIVE FOR PEACE

Charles Miller - Bass (bookings 481-4151)
Timmy Copland - Guitar
Bobby Davis - Vocals
Jason Vincent - Drums

STRIVE FOR PEACE formed in January 1984 from the remnants of ANSCHLUSS, BAD ATTITUDE, S.O.S., the PITS. They have about 10 songs in their set and although I have heard they are hot, I can't say for sure because I haven't heard them or received their Demo tape yet.

SCHMYZER

Pat Walsh - Guitar, Vocals
Jon Graff - Bass (bookings 853-7501)
Jimmy Sheaffer - Drums

Former BONESAW, JUDICIAL FEAR, and ANSCHLUSS members gang up for what promises to be a hot band. This band originally started out in September of 83 with Pat on bass, Rusty Floyd on drums, and Jeff Clites on guitar. Due to Pat's good natured Nazi imperialism (HA-HA) this line-up never took off. The present line-up, still more of a concept than a band, formed in January 1984. Sources say they have about 10 songs and are currently looking for a singer. If it pans out, these guys potentially have the best new band in the area. If not, some of you will see already how much of a part you've been in the great SCHMYZE! Look forward to their debut. These Psuedo-Nazi-Bastards will certainly kick-ass. I don't know whether it's mystique or ignorance that surrounds this band, but I'm dying to find out.

JUDICIAL FEAR

Pork Chop - Vocals
Jon Graf - Bass
Joey Anaroma - Guitar
Jimmy Sheaffer - Drums

Originally formed in October 1982, broke up in December of 82, reformed with new drummer in May of 1983 and broke up again in November of 83; this band has played some mighty gigs. They still reform every other drunken blue moon, but only for fun. Thus, they merit recognition in this update. I wish I had a Demo tape of this band. JOH E. They were hot while they lasted.

KROKEDIL TIRS

Stan Boyett - Vocals (bookings 547-5655)
Bobby Fisher - Bass
Al Habit - Drums
Stuart Ferebee - Guitar

Forming somewhere around June of 1983, KROKEDIL TIRS is probably the most provocative band in the area. You either listen to them or hate them. They are eccentricly good. Their set is usually 40 to 60 minutes. Stan serves as the rigid cornerpost and frontman extraordinaire for the restlessly hypnotic rhythms of the band. They don't like always being told they sound like P.I.L. "We may sound a bit like one band, where as most bands sound like all the other bands. Fuckin' hypocrites." They hope to land a big recording contract with a minor or independent label. I feel they could do just as well by backing and producing their own record. Catch their set! Controversy or conversation????

CODE RED

Roy Buni - Guitar (bookings 340-1170)
Glenn Gutierrez - Bass
Robert Cox - Drums

This new VA. Beach band has recently formed and are looking for a singer. They were formerly known as BIO.

DISARM

John Van Norman - Guitar (bookings 489-4478)
Brian Zentz - Mike Stand
Peter Galway - Drums

Another band in the refining stage. They're from Norfolk and they have a 20 minute set in the few months they've been together. They're looking for a bassist.

DEATH ROW

Kirby Brown - Vocals (bookings 481-4058)
Dirk McCulley - Bass
Ron Danzinger - Guitar (bookings 425-8844)
Troy Keiser - Drums

13

These former members of the CRINGE and RAT TAILS got together in October of 1983. They have a very impressive wall of sound. Their set is about 30 minutes long and full of frams. I'd like to have a Demo tape of them for review in the next issue. If you haven't seen them yet, you must be socially retarded. I hope they make it into a recording studio.

STINKY

Mike Crescini - Vocals (bookings 340-5837)
Jeff Clites - Guitar (bookings 485-1545)
J.J. White - Bass
Mark Welles - Drums

Former bassist with HOIT, drummer and former bassist for DEAD MEAT, and ex-guitarist for FRONT LINE and GOD'S WILL all gang up for a band of decibel gypsies. Throw away your devil box ghetto blasters, you're gonna need a seismograph to record this band. Yet to make their debut, they at present have about a 20 minute set and want to go into a studio to record this summer.

AGENT 86

John Belechak - Vocals (bookings 467-3625)
Mark Parker - Guitar
Charlie Grant - Bass
David Warshaw - Drums

Originally formed 6 months ago as BOTTOM LINE, this band has a vigorous 20 minute set that cooks. And they keep getting better. Be sure to see them live. At press time, Mark was replaced with a new guitarist. I don't know his name, but their set is great.

M.U.D. (Minds Under Distress)

Larry May - Vocals (bookings 464-4620)
Scott McQueen - Guitar
David Lemke - Bass
Rob Conger - Drums

This VA. Beach band has been together for about 6 months and their set contains 15 songs. The average age of the band members is 14. I can't describe the music because I haven't heard them yet. I expect a Demo from them soon which I will review in the next issue.

KJB

Bob Brunkhorst - Bass, Vocals (bookings 623-7609)
Joy Brunkhorst - Guitar
Mike Land - Guitar
Kevin Kerr - Drums

This band altered from the SPITTERZ to the BLANX to the present line up which has been holding for nearly 2 years now. They truly are the spirit of the pop adventurer. Very tight and completely original. Their vinyl debut promises to be very entertaining. They already have enough material for several albums. I recently saw them perform an impromptu set at their warehouse. I was awed by the density of this band. Thick arrangements full of spicy graphic guitar playing. I can't believe how good this band has become. At top form, they do a 40 minute set of their best originals that will restore eyesight to the blind. Even if it means going out of your way to see them, just do it! They practice at the WECO warehouse on Hampton Blvd. At the present they have 46 original songs and a lot of fun. They are planning a 33 date tour for this summer to promote their upcoming LP.

P.D.A.

Gerald Durdell - Guitar (bookings 468-6420)
Danell Edwards - Bass
Mike Lowry - Vocals

Still in the forming stages, this band is looking for a drummer. They have a lot of songs but need someone to keep the beat.

NO SUCH NONSENSE

Wolfgang Dancer - Bass, Vocals (bookings 497-5371)
 Vince Downing - Drums (bookings 489-3493)
 John Finney - Sax, Vocals
 Don Drake - Guitar

This band is a club band with a lot of good original tunes. They've been together a year and have several hours worth of material. They have a Demo tape that is available from Wolf's Records at Colley Ave. and Redgate Ave. intersection.

WAXING POETICS

Paul Teirs - Guitar (bookings 423-5242)
 Shawn Hennessey - Bass, Vocals (bookings 461-2860)
 Bil Sharon - Drums
 Shawn Middleton - Guitar, Vocals

This Norfolk band has been together off and on for over a year. Their current line-up came to be about 3 months ago. Their debut at Dominics went over well. Bastions of ragged pop music, they currently have about 2 hours of material that they can perform live. Be sure to catch their show. Paul is quite a guitarist.

THERMAL HEAT

Bink Brown - Guitar, Casio, Percussion, Vocals
 (bookings 425-1282)
 Earl Elliot - Bass, Vocals (bookings 422-1985)
 Boo Boo Ahern - Guitar, Vocals
 Joey Myskopski - Drums, Vocals

Former members of L7 and JERRY'S KIDS represent the current line-up which has been in effect since January of 1984. They started out a year ago and since have developed an hour long set of the most unique Reggae/Fusion/Funk to be heard. They gave a good performance at the Wave recently that perhaps has given these guys some well deserved recognition.

MONKEY BREW

Scott White - Bass (bookings 485-1383)
 Jim Perry - Drums
 Beano - Vocals
 Scott Bennett - Guitar

MONKEY BREW, retarded cousin of Motley Crue Ooooh Ooh Ooh, Do some spooky shit, too! If you thought SCAT RITUAL was bad, you aint seen nothing yet. This band really blows chunks. What a bunch of sickos. Destined to go down in the flames of history as drunk rock. Scott B. is only temporary as guitarist and the band is soliciting guitarists. If you like roast oysters, try to get in this band cuz they have real cool beer parties all the time and they bang oysters.

ZEN

Clinton Carpenter - Guitar (bookings 422-0850)
 Bobby Hunter - Drums
 John Williams - Bass

This new band started forming in January of 1984 and just recently acquired a bassist in April. These former members of RAT TAILS, NERVOUS WRECK, GUNS, NO NAME, URBAN DISCHORD have about 15 songs and will soon be playing at shows in the area. They are looking for a singer. Sources say that Pat "the Schmyzer" Walsh will fill the spot but at press time the position is still open. Hopefully, I will receive their tape in time to review it for next issue. They plan to play a lot of out of town shows and hope to play in N.Y. "We are looking for a more melodille approach and don't want to be confined to all hardcore thrash so we can develop and produce our own unique style. We are planning some covers, but are really concentrating on our own material."-(Johnnie)

They cite influences as the Descendents, Cause for Alarm, Stillborn Christians, the local scene and everybody. The band was considering changing their name to FAIL-SAFE as this article went to press.

This new band is an altered form of JERRY'S KIDS. I haven't heard them, but I'm looking forward to it. If you wish to book them, just call Tree Top Sound.

xxxxx So there you have it. Not 100% complete and not thorough, but it may be effective in exposing these bands to a larger audience. The erratic response to this article was the cause for some bands getting overexposed and some bands underexposed. If any of your bands were missed, too fucking bad...Get off your ass and send me a tape and some band info. I intend to update this article in about 6 months. So bands, send tapes, pictures and other stuff to:

MUSIC NOTES...4.18.84

-PORK CHOP, ex JUDICIAL FEAR singer, is screwing around and jamming with the LEGION OF DOOM. He has played with them on several occasions. Rumours abound that the LEGION OF DOOM may soon disband.
-Sincere appreciation to Steve at Dominics for his 50% efforts in keeping us entertained. Good ideas but no room to dance. I hope Steve realizes that if he would find a bigger place with a stage that could serve up daytime all age matinees and nightly intoxicating shows that we would all be glad to lend a hand and adamantly support him.
-Progressive Productions April 7th show at Dominics with VIRUS, RING OF FIRE, and HEART ATTACK from NY was cancelled. But thats OK cuz 1) $4.00 is too expensive and 2) I would rather see the MOB anyway. Nice try anyway fellows. Hopefully the upcoming DICKIES and UK SUBS shows will become a reality, although I can't imagine either of these bands playing at a place the size of Dominics.
-KIRK MARCHAND (ex GOD'S WILL) and CLIFF (ex MIRACLE FISH) are both living in D.C. now and they plan to put a band together tentatively titled THE THING (that wouldn't leave)/
-THE TIDEWATER ARSE will be staging a benefit concert on Sat. July 28th. All proceeds will go toward renting a warehouse where we can stage shows every weekend. The bands planned to play at the benefit are SCHMYZER, STINKY, KJB, DEATH ROW, HOIT, LEGION OF DOOM, and AGENT 86. Any other bands wishing to perform at this show should call Jeff at 485-1545 or Steve at 480-1553.
-the April 14th F.U.'s show at Dominics was a joke. $5 is ridiculous. Dirty bastards.....the F.U.'s say John Paul cheated them out of some money. John Paul sez the F.U.'s stole some valuable jewelry from his place when he let them stay there.
-anticipate the summer release of a 7" ep by WHOMP and a 12" from HONOR ROLE. Both Richmond bands record on ESKIMO Records. The GOD'S WILL ep is finally coming out in July.

Hey Man, I'm kinda like new to the scene and all and like a while back I bought 10 raffle tickets for Krokidil Tires surfboard/cash promotional, surefire gimmick, suckera-thon. And I was just wondering what the winning number was, coz heck, I stand just as much chance as the next dude to win my dream log or $300 cash.

Vinnie Jammer
Virginia Beach, VA

Dear Vinnie,

Not only are you a two-time losing surfpunk, but you've also been screwed out of 20 bucks, for the fun of it. See,
(as the Tires put it), "raffles are like sleeping dogs, sell $180 worth of tickets and then forget about it. Do us a favor - don't mention this to anyone, let sleeping dogs lie".
OK? See ya Vinnie, (you dung eating decedent of an outhouse maggot).

Hey Guys,

I got a real fucking sob story that'll just jerk tears right out of your eyes. Ya see, I'm a narly teenage punk rockers and you just wouldn't believe all of the grief I catch just because I "choose" to look different. All of these grits and preppie people keep pointing at me and saying DEVO, B-52's, Flock of Seagulls. And guess what guys, I don't even like those bands, isn't that cool. I'll tell ya what, it depresses me and I cry. Gaully Gee, ya know, I try to explain that I'm just different and so god damned way out and cooler than they are, but gosh, they just say fuck you, and do that Devo bit again. Then I get depressed and cry again. And guess what, (I don't know if you could tell this about me yet), but I'm not even prejudice, that's what all us cool, liberal, pompess, superior punk rockers think. And then I get depressed and cry again.

Well gosh, I just wanted to share my feelings with you, and I hope you keep putting out this publication, so I can keep abreast on all the far out and groovy things all the narly punk rockers are doing in this area.

Love ya,
Doomed to Gloom!

YOA ARSE,

Well Hot Fuck Big City I'm ecstatic!!
It's about time a clever bunch of devil-worshipping Nazi elite got some musical drive going in the Tidewater area. The inside scoop is they're going to fry Jewish household pets in an oven shaped like a pentagram at their 1st gig. Pretty heavy man!! They all buttfuck and bang battery acid before each practice and the bigtime Satanic card carrying Nazi's even spit gasoline on people whenever they light a cigarette, isn't that killer?? I'd go on but I'll let you little vermin discover how interesting these guys are. One big plus for them is they hate them tar babies, mega-cool huh?

ALLEGIANCE TO THE REICH,
DAS YOUTH.

(I would imagine all you open minded holy water pissing assholes might read into certain things occasionally, instead of resorting to redneck accusations immediately.
Are you thinking and living for a reason or are you living a nauseous conformed rerun as is most of society. WAKE UP PEOPLE!!!)....Ed.

HEY ARSE,

I'm sorry that I'm not as cool
as that manager at Dominics. I now realize what a turd I am. Everything I have grown with since 1978 has been done better by Steve just since this past Xmas when he got that bitchin' hat and skinny tie and made himself the scene administrator. What a friggin' cool guy! I just wanted to take this chance to publicly apologize. I'M sorry.

NEWS ON THE MARCH

DEATH FROM ABOVE

Time of the Month

By JOE BERGER

Beastly schoolboy Jacques Broussard choked the life out of his helpless girlfriend, then gleefully invited carloads of pals to a remote ravine — to inspect the grisly corpse.

Shocked lawmen believe that the hulking, 280-pound high school student also made love to the girl's limp body before tossing it away like a rag doll.

"Everything about this case is vile, disgusting and deplorable," said stunned investigators.

"And maybe the sickest part of all is that countless kids came to see the corpse — laughed at it, threw rocks at it, even played with it — then went on about their business like nothing had happened.

"Nobody bothered to tell the police because nobody cared."

Ghoulish kids laughed and threw rocks at the body

Russia's rebellious teens are fast becoming a generation of shiftless, vodka-swilling, pill-popping punks — and frantic Commie bosses say it is all America's fault!

"American imperialism is poisoning the minds of our Soviet youth," fumed Politburo member Konstantin Chernenko as he called for a crackdown on his country's lazy, booze-guzzling, kids. They skip school day after day and roam the streets in search of excitement.

"They drink vodka in the alleys like common street bums and take drugs to spice up their lives. Until a few years ago, Russian children were the most respectful and obedient in the world. Now they are thugs and hoodlums."

Juvenile crime is so rampant that outraged Commie bosses are spending millions of dollars to build new detention centers.

Carpenter's nightmare

A carpenter pausing to examine a board he was cutting with his power saw sliced off his penis.

The 32-year-old New Haven, Conn., man and the severed organ were rushed to Yale Hospital where microsurgeons reattached the penis and said their patient had a 50-50 chance of resuming his sex life.

Govt. orders girls raped

GIRLS SENTENCED to death in Iran are raped before they are sent to the firing squad, because Islamic law forbids the execution of virgins.

Reports smuggled out of Tehran disclosed to INSIDE PAGE that before the terrified young women are shot they are forced into paper marriages to satisfy the curious moral code of the nation's fanatical religious leaders. Then they are raped and executed.

Mass executions and brutal punishment are part of daily life in Iran, where the fanatical Ayatollah Khomeini has declared that all laws contrary to Islam are void.

Teen sentenced for murder

Champagne celebration followed shooting

By STACEY BURLING
Staff Writer

NORFOLK — A 19-year-old man who killed his girlfriend's father, then used the victim's credit cards to finance a party celebrating the murder with a $100 bottle of champagne, was sentenced Friday to 40 years in prison.

Daniel S. Ketterman, who pleaded guilty June 16 to the first-degree murder of Glenn E. Thompson last October, also told a psychologist that he had decapitated 13 cats in the five days before the murder while thinking about wounding the 57-year-old retired Navy man.

Ketterman kept the animals' heads in a storage shed in his yard and left their bodies at school-bus stops where children would find them, according to a report by Daniel J. Delaney, a psychologist with the Community Mental Health Center and Psychiatric Institute.

"I'm sorry for what I did," Ketterman, a short man with shoulder-length brown hair and a full beard, told Circuit Court Judge Thomas R. McNamara during the sentencing hearing. "I really didn't know what was going on at the time. I loved Mr. Thompson as a father. To do it over again, I can't . . . all I can say is I can't turn back time."

Ketterman and his 18-year-old girlfriend, Cynthia Thompson, were arrested Nov. 1 in Maryland as they arrived at a bus station. Miss Thompson was charged with being an accessory after the fact of murder and with credit-card fraud. As part of a plea agreement, she later pleaded guilty to cashing a forged check and is free on probation.

D.F. Leonard, a probation officer who interviewed Ketterman and his associates for a pre-sentence report, said Ketterman and Miss Thompson's relationship began several years ago.

Glenn Thompson, an alcoholic, was sober when he and Ketterman met, Leonard said. Ketterman, who is not close to his own father, looked up to Thompson as "the father he'd really not had himself," Leonard said.

Later, Thompson began drinking again. He abused his daughter when he was drunk. "Ketterman's respect for him fell," Leonard said.

Ketterman had arbitrated disputes between the father and the daughter. He told Leonard that he had taken a knife away from Miss Thompson during one argument and removed a gun from the home.

Ketterman told Delaney that he had been killing two or three cats a month for four or five years. He said that when he felt depressed and thought of suicide, it made him feel better to strangle a cat with a braided rope.

Before the murder, Ketterman began seeing visions of Thompson lying in the street covered with blood, according to his statement to police. In the vision, a crowd of onlookers was asking what happened while Ketterman laughed.

"I keep seeing this all the time," Ketterman told police. "I would drink, and it would go away. It would come back, and I would drink. I wanted to hurt him, but I knew I couldn't. I then started hurting the cats. I started decapitating them, and, when I would do it, I would think about him being hurt. I would leave them at bus stops and places so kids would see them."
